

BELARUSIAN INDUSTRIAL FORUM-2018

International exhibition project

Held under the patronage of Government of Republic of Belarus

Official support of republican bodies of state administration, executive committees of all regions of the Republic of Belarus and Minsk city, institutions of science and education, and public associations.

Organizing committee on preparation and holding of the Forum is headed by Deputy Prime Minister of Belarus Mr. Vladimir Semashko.

In the program:

- 21st international specialized exhibition of industrial technologies & innovations «TechInnoProm»
- Plenary session
- Forum of business ideas
- International Symposium “Technologies. Equipment. Quality”
- International theoretical and practical symposium “Prospects of development of additive technologies in republic Belarus”
- Cooperation exchange “Science and industry – strategy of innovative cooperation”
- Subcontract exchange in industry
- Seminars and presentations of Participants
- Competition of Belarusian welders with international participation

Organizer:

EXPOFORUM Exhibition Company.

Date and venue:

May 29 – June 1, 2018; Belarus,
Roofed soccer arena; 20/2 Pobediteley av., Minsk, Belarus

Forum’s purpose is to assist the enterprises and organizations in solving of tasks on expanding of hi-tech and competitive production for supplying on domestic and foreign markets, in adoption of new high-end technologies and equipment, in development of international cooperation, in investments attracting in industry.

Belarusian Industrial Forum is held annually since 1997 and has become famous interstate event.

During twenty years it has formed a powerful platform for promoting innovations and high technologies, has become an effective platform for a constructive dialogue between representatives of science, industrial production and related economy industries.

Over the years of the forum, exhibitors in its program were companies from more than 30 countries. It is organized national expositions of Ukraine and Czech Republic. Annually exposition has 200-300 companies and about 150 of them included in the number of permanent exhibitors.

Extending and consolidating interest in the forum from Russian regions, countries of the Eurasian Economic Union.

Representative collective expositions in different years were formed by enterprises from Novgorod, Novosibirsk, Volgograd, Lipetsk, Sverdlovsk, Samara, Penza, Ryazan regions of Russia and the North-West Federal District of the Russian Federation, the Republic of Mordovia, and the city of Omsk.

In 2017 the official delegations from Samara and Ryazan regions, Republic of Tatarstan, Arab Republic of Egypt, People’s Republic China, regional Chambers of Commerce and Industry of Russia, representatives of scientific and business groups of Azerbaijan, Lithuania, Russia, Slovak Republic, Ukraine, Tajikistan, representatives of the diplomatic corps accredited in Republic of Belarus took part in different events of the Forum.