

Ladies and gentlemen!

On December 8, 2016 Business Training Center of the Belarusian Chamber of Commerce and Industry is organizing the First Belarusian Investment Forum "Open Windows", which will take place within the premises of the Belarusian Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

The event is held for the purpose to create the universal platform for investment projects' presentation by representatives of all business categories, from small to middle and large, which will find the continuation in real practical dialogue between the investor and the applicant of the investment project. The forum represents an open large-scale platform, where the companies will be able to offer the ideas to investors in real time directly and without any intermediaries. The Forum "Open Windows" is the combination of the ideas, experience exchange, merge of mutually advantageous interests, business meetings in B2B format and business cooperation exchange.

Uniqueness of the event is that the companies and investors will be able to obtain the exhaustive actual information on a complete cycle of forming of an investment portfolio taking into account the legal aspects of an investment offer and investment risks insurance for investors and for the companies. During the Forum banks will be able to provide the investment credit proposals to prospective clients. Investment offers of the companies will be offered in the format of a new marketing formula which allows to have an impression about the investment project within several minutes and already at this stage will help the investor to decide whether it is necessary to examine the whole project.

It is expected the wide broadcasting of the event in mass media and Internet resources.

You are kindly asked to render assistance in the invitation of investors, representatives of business community for holding business meetings in B2B format, business cooperation exchange, being co-organizers of the Forum on the terms of providing financial support in holding this event for their activities advertizing and use of the effective platform for product promotion.
